The Art of On-the-Job Writing is reference guide for anyone who writes as part of their job. This book explores ways to reduce writer's block and how to create writing tailored to the aim of the piece without excess wordiness or confusion. Techniques include the PDQ (planning, drafting, and quality controlling) writing process and the 4S Plan (statement, support, structure, and style) for completing any written work. Embedded examples and exercises to practice each of the key concepts are included
